It takes something special to win the approval of chefs

Happily, that's exactly what we've created.

The newly branded Spinneyfields range of deli-block, grated and sliced cheeses is all about quality.

We grade every cheese, not once, but twice. First, our experts grade it to make sure it matches their serious expectations. Then we grade it again to be certain it meets our customers' requirements too.

That's how we can be sure every product in the range delivers a consistent and reliable performance.

And that's why chefs across the nation have given it a big, big vote of approval.
